Your task:

(1) Watch the NBC 4 New York report “Veterans Home Employees Speak Out” at <https://www.nbcnewyork.com/news/coronavirus/veteran-home-employees-speak-out/2415884/>

(2) Using IMVAIN, evaluate these sources:

1. Sue Batko, family advocate
2. Menlo Park Nursing Home Employee who says “the facility killed the veteran”
3. Menlo Park Nursing Home Employee who says “so we didn’t wear masks”

Are they Independent? Are they Multiple sources whose word is corroborated? Do they provide Verifiable information or opinion? Are they Authoritative and/or Informed on the subject? Are they fully Named in the report?

(3) Do the sources make valuable contributions to the report? Based on the contributions of these sources, what can you conclude from this report? Does it provide reliable, actionable information that you would share on social media?

Objective:

A news report is only as good as its sources. For news consumers, evaluating sources is an essential part of determining whether a story is reliable and actionable.
