

Students First Name Last Name

HIST 232-

Date

Annotated Bibliography

Meeks, Tomiko. Houston History Magazine. "Freedmen's Town, Texas: A Lesson in the Failure of Historic Preservation." <https://houstonhistorymagazine.org/wp-content/uploads/2011/04/meeks-freedmans-town.pdf> (accessed September 2, 2018).

This paragraph should summarize the reading and be at least five sentences in length. You must pay attention to all of the punctuation marks and where everything is placed in the citation. If you choose to format your paper in some other order than what I am showing you for Chicago style, you will receive significant point reduction and possibly a zero on your assignment.

Authors Last Name, First Name. Name of the Webpage. "Title of the Reading." url (accessed Month Day, Year).

This book is about slavery, it focuses on the slavery of the Africans. It is a primary source because it has not be edited or changed from one language to another. Blumenthal Debra explained how African were the least graded type of slaves. She went on by saying all slaves were not equal. This article is going to help me in my essay because it discusses briefly the grievances of the African slaves, and gave a picture of how they were living in slavery.

Authors Last Name, First Name. Name of the Webpage. "Title of the Reading." url
(accessed Month Day, Year)

This paragraph should summarize This book is about slavery, it focuses on the slavery of the Africans. It is a primary source because it has not be edited or changed from one language to another. Blumenthal Debra explained how African were the least graded type of slaves. She went on by saying all slaves were not equal. This article is going to help me in my essay because it discusses briefly the grievances of the African slaves, and gave a picture of how they were living in slavery.

Authors Last Name, First Name. Name of the Webpage. "Title of the Reading." url
(accessed Month Day, Year).

This paragraph should summarize This book is about slavery, it focuses on the slavery of the Africans. It is a primary source because it has not be edited or changed from one language to another. Blumenthal Debra explained how African were the least graded type of slaves. She went on by saying all slaves were not equal. This article is going to help me in my essay because it discusses briefly the grievances of the African slaves, and gave a picture of how they were living in slavery.