Name	Copy of Video Reflection
Description	You will select two articles to review over the semester. The articles are located in the course documents folder under the heading Articles. To receive full points, you must perform the items listed in the syllabus.

Rubric Detail

	Levels of Achievement
Criteria	Novice	Competent	Proficient
Knowledge	3 Points Student did not identify at least three symptoms stemming from the illness nor did they intelligently discuss the etiology of the chronic condition. Connections between the article and information learned from the lectures and textbook were absent.	4 Points Student is able to discuss the etiology of the chronic illness and identify at least three key symptoms relating to the illness. Connections between the article and textbook was present, but weak.	5 Points Student is able to discuss the etiology of the chronic illness and identify at least five key symptoms relating to the illness. Student is able to make strong connections between the article and information learned from the lecture and textbook.
Content	3 Points Student did not discuss title and/or author. The overview of the article was weak and information was missing regarding community resources and new information learned.	4 Points Student identified the title and author of the article. A strong overview of the chronic illness was provided. Student provided two new things learned from the article and at least two community resources with a description of each resource.	5 Points Student identified the title and author of the article. A strong overview of the chronic illness was provided along with three new things learned from the article. Student provided 3 community resources and a description of each resource.

Presentation	3 Points Student's video and/or audio was not clear. The student was not dressed professionally. There was moderate background distractions and noise.	4 Points Student's video and audio is clear and comprehensible. The student was dressed professionally with minimal background distractions and noise.	5 Points Student's video and audio is clear and comprehensible. The student was dressed professionally and there were not any background distractions or noise.
References	3 Points Student cited less than 2 scholarly sources besides the textbook and article.	4 Points Student cited at least 2 scholarly sources besides the textbook and article.	5 Points Student cited at least 3 scholarly sources besides the textbook and article.

View Associated Items

Print Close Window