| OVERVIEWThe Devine Being is the all mighty creator of all existence. This position is the staple to all that is known and unknown, without this role “Too solid flesh would melt, thaw, and resolve itself into a dew,” nothing would have structure. (Shakespeare) He is the overseer, the counselor, and care giver. He goes by many names, but the most universal of them all is God. Your employees and the life they interact with will be those you do everything for. The Devine Being needs to be there before the employees and after them. The employees will never see you, but the Devine Being can remind them that “You will hardly know who I am or what I mean, but I shall be good health to you nevertheless, and filter and fibre your blood. Failing to fetch me at first<sup>11</sup> keep encouraged, missing me one place search another, I stop somewhere waiting for you.” (Whitman) Once hired, the job is permanent. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIESThe Devine Being must be able to handle considerable amount of requests from employees. Must be able to know all outcomes of employees’ decisions, yet not interfere with the measures the employees take to fulfill these decisions, unless the employee asks for the Divine Being to make a decision for him or her. The Devine Being must be numerous enough to answer questions, directly or indirectly, to all employees. No matter how terrible the decision made is, the Devine Being must be able to forgive the employee if the employee asks for this forgiveness. The Devine Being puts life in motion, the trees can breathe and nature can now dance<sup>22</sup>, but does not interfere with this life once it is in motion. Free will of the employees is highly respected. Knowing you, an employee will think “How fine to live each day, mindful of the world.” (Ellerbee) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Creator</li> <li>• Peace Giver</li> <li>• Leader</li> <li>• Caretaker</li> </ul> |              |                                                                                               |                      |

The Devine Being has all the power over the employees and what they interact with. With this great power come great responsibility and the Devine Being needs to know exactly how to use this power only for the greater good of the employees.

- Complete patience

The employees will make choices that can be frustrating because the Devine Being will, of course, know what the correct choices are, but the Devine Being must not become angry with the employees, but understand why they made the choice they did and assist them in future choices if needed.

- Complete Love

All employees and beings they interact with should be loved all the same. All beings and life are now your children and you should love them as parents love their children. On the topic of God, his children will be ever thankful for the good times, “For I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, Naked and you clothed me, sick and you cared for me, imprisoned and you came to me,” but for the bad times they act as children do<sup>33</sup>. (Russell)

- Complete self-control

Since omnipotence is a trait that is possessed, the Devine Being needs to be able to control his or her emotions and not take action based on these emotions.

<sup>3</sup> Simile

Understanding

- Willingness to forgive employees for all their mistakes
- Understands the employees will not grasp your meaning of everything

Collective

- Being humble
- Not losing yourself to your emotions
- Responsible for all actions, good or bad, as the employees have the potential to always put the blame on the Devine Being
