Board, Editorial. "How Can a Place with 58,000 Homeless People Continue to Function?" Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles Times, 1 Mar. 2018, www.latimes.com/opinion/editorials/la-ed-homelessness-impact-on-others-20180301-htmlstory.html.

In the LA times article it talks about the major issue of homelesses in L.A. There are about 58,000 homeless people in the city. The major homeless issue is affecting everyone, but no one seems to be trying to fix the situation. It explains those who are residences are upset, even afraid of this issue. This is relevant to my topic of how Hollywood is in reality. Hollywood is well known for being beautiful and clean, but in reality it is dirty and filled with the major issue of homeless people. Many who dream of moving here and or visit become surprised when they are hit with the reality of the neighborhood. I can use this in the essay as one of the points of how Hollywood is different then what it actually is in reality.

kornman, Jonathan. "My Love/Hate Relationship with Living in Hollywood - The Bold Italic - San Francisco." The Bold Italic, The Bold Italic, 16 Sept. 2014, thebolditalic.com/my-love-hate-relationship-with-living-in-hollywood-the-bold-italic-san-francisco-4c0c77b9c5c.

In this article by Jonathan Kornman he describes what it is like living in Hollywood. He mentions how he moved from Chicago to Hollywood. He visited Hollywood once and loved it, a few months later he moved to Hollywood. He quickly learned how awful living in Hollywood is. He mentioned "You don't understand how disgusting it is," he is referring to the dirtiness of the neighborhood. He goes on to talk about how annoying it is living in Hollywood and how annoying tourists and residents can be. He mentions how he is 2 blocks away from Trader Joe's, but can't walk because he might run into a homeless doing lines and coke. This relates to my topic of what many people experience when living in Hollywood. He gives an in depth reality of what it is like to be a resident in Hollywood. He compares what he thought it would be to how it actually is. I can use this in my essay to support the idea of how living in Hollywood actually feels.
