

Timille Tingle		Assignment submission date - 09/16/2020
5	Company analysis: Management analysis
		2016	2017	2018	2019	2020
		1	2	3	4	5
5.1	Quality of the management
5.1.1	Top managers and their power	Brian Cornell: Board Chairman, Michael Fiddelke: Executive Vice Financial Officer, Rick Gomez: Executive Vice President, Chief Ma Strategy Officer,
5.1.2	Changes in management (significant changes in top management if applicable)

5.1.3	Board of directors and their power	Christina Hennington: Executive Vice President and Chief Merc Hardlines, Essentials and Capabilities, Melissa Kremer: Executive Chief Human Resources Officer, Don H. Liu: Executive vice president and Risk Officer, John J. Mulligan: Executive Vice President and Officer, Stephanie Lundquist: Executive Vice President and President Beverage
5.1.4	Main shareholders (shareholders with significant holdings)	Target has 10 shareholders: Capital Research & Management Group, Inc., SSgA Funds Management, Inc., BNP. Paribas Securities Fund Advisors., Capitol Research & Management Co., Wells Fargo LLC., Renaissance Technologies LLC., Geode Capital Management Square Capital Management LP
5.2	The competitive position of the company	Due to tough competitive environment that Target faces, consumers have several choices at their disposal, both at brick-and-mortar stores and Web. Products have a low degree of differentiation. Therefore, Target has to keep prices competitive in order to boost sales.
5.3	Life cycle analysis of company (chose one choice which fits with your company start up, growing, matured or declining business)	Target has been around about 118 years. Target continues to grow and sustainably reduce their carbon footprint.
5.4	Business valuation

5.4.1	Cash flow	Operating 5.84B Investing 508M Financing 4.41B	Operating 5.44B Investing 1.47B Financing 3.89B	Operating 6.94B Investing 3.08B Financing 4.4B	Operating 5.97B Investing 3.42B Financing 2.46B	Operating 7.12B Investing 2.94B Financing 4.09B
5.4.2	Market value of company (market capitalization of your company)					154.08 USD
5.5	Longer term outlook for the company (trend of future earnings, earning power)	Delivering outstanding value, continuous innovation an exceptional handising Officer, Vice President and ent and Chief Legal l Chief Operating ident of Food and o., The Vanguard es Corp., BlackRock o Clearing Services nt LLC., Pershing sumers have pres and on the e, Target is forced et ambitious goals to

Currently updated
guest experience.	