Personal Statement

I am as of now a Counselor at Slim 4 Life Weight loss. I have held this position since October this year. I am keen on considering an MBA to gain knowledge from my predecessors, investigate and share innovative operational techniques through team assignments. Additionally, I am keen to build up my administration style and add consultancy and key deduction to my aptitudes portfolio, in anticipation of an undertaking that I have as a main priority. This is to give showcasing consultancy to not-revenue-driven associations.

During my Accounting degree at Jadarat Institute, The Technical and Vocational Training Corporation, I underwent a leadership challenge and emerged victoriously. This later prompted me to consider enhancing my managerial skills. My present job has included counseling clients with their weight loss and diet plans. Notably, it has required proactivity, exchange abilities, and a lot of approaches to convince divisions inside the organization to grasp an extreme change in how the organization brands itself to a relentlessly advanced objective masses. Having been a member of The National Society of Leadership and Success (NSLA) I have been able to encourage people on healthy lifestyles.

I am keen on the MBA basically as a result of the emphasis on the dynamic challenges facing businesses currently. I am motivated by my ambition to carry collaborative practices and inspirational ways of dealing with administrative issues. The main purpose behind applying for an MBA is equipping myself with current skills and build additional ones. An MBA would enhance my tactical and counseling skills hence furthering my knowledge of the sector that I am currently in. After careful consideration, I have gathered enough information in convincing myself that I have chosen the most appropriate course. Therefore, I am hoping in discussing further my potential offering to this particular course in an interview.
