

1. What are some of the benefits and challenges with predictive coding, as illuminated in the webinars from ILTA? Find a recent case through K&L Gates or Exterro that discusses predictive coding or technology-assisted (TAR) or computer-assisted review .
 - a. Provide the citation to the case and a brief summary of the court's view about the use of this technology.
2. Which of the steps in e-discovery (using the EDRM) do you find most interesting or compelling? How can technology assist with this step? How does this technology reduce the potential risks of this step in an e-discovery process?
3. Of all of the software tools that we have covered in the reading assignments for Modules 12-13, which do you find the most intriguing or helpful? What is the particular focus of this software (which step or steps within e-discovery)? What are its strengths and weaknesses?
4. What strategies do you use for preparing for public speaking activities? How have you improved your skills or confidence in public speaking? Have you had to testify in court or give a deposition or assist someone else with these activities? If so, please
5. What are some other suggestions would you provide for strategies to use to prepare for public speaking activities? How could someone use these suggestions to help them improve his/her skills and confidence?
6. Any other surprising or interesting points from Module 12, Module 13 or the reading assignment.