

Pre-Writing: Look at the image above. Think about the point of view. This image is from the point of view of the Natives. Do not write the assignment on this image, this image is just to help get your creative thinking caps on.

- What do you believe the Natives are looking at over the hill?
- How do the Natives feel about what they are seeing?
- How do you know this is what they are feeling?
- When was this image taken?
- What was the purpose?
- Why might the Natives view of expansion be different than the colonist?
- How is that displayed in this image?

Understanding perspective:

Directions:

1. Take on the role of a native of the new world or a colonist.
2. Justify the reasons to continue expansion or to halt the expansion of colonies in North and South America.
3. Be sure to provide specific reasons why one would support your viewpoint in your role.
4. Provide at least two reasons you would continue or halt expansion.
5. Should be written in an academic paragraph in the first person.

Checklist:

____ Did you pretend you were a native or colonist? (Write-in 1st person pretend you are actually that person.)

____ From that individual's viewpoint did you write about reasons (at least two) to either continue or halt the expansion of the colonies.

____ Did you provide specifics that help support your viewpoint?

T1: Writing*1a. I can write a thesis statement/response that answers the question.

| Advanced                                                                                                                                                                                   | Proficient                                                                                                                                                                                                | Approaching                                                                                                                                                                                            | INC                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| You can produce writing that fully develops original ideas with details that move beyond the obvious. You did a really good job of taking on a perspective and providing specific details. | You can produce writing that develops interesting & relevant ideas with appropriate details. You did a good job taking on a perspective, you just need to have more specific details from your viewpoint. | You can produce writing that develops simple ideas with limited details. You wrote about a perspective, but I would have liked you to get into more detail and really take on the role of that person. | You cannot state any clear ideas. Please take on the perspective of either a Native American or a Colonist and respond to the question above. You will take on the role of this person, so please write in 1st person. |

Please write your paragraph below:

Please submit work as both PDF or Docx and as a google link with access and editing rights. Click here for help on a computer or here for help on an IPAD. Further help for submitting on an IPAD click here. Assignments that are not received in this format will receive NEE and MUST be submitted through blackboard correctly.