

Midterm Examination
Spring 2018
Introduction to Law

This exam is due the beginning of class Thursday.

Please answer the following questions.

Question 1.

Can the Government constitutionally regulate the content (that is censor) of email by banning spam (unwarranted advertisements) and web sex or pornography available on websites? What constitutional arguments would you make pro or con?

Question 2

About Trial Courts and Appellate Courts:

- (a) Define each
- (b) What is the purpose of each?
- (c) Do juries assist both?
- (d) Are witnesses used in both types of Court?

Question 3.

Ben hired John to represent him in a criminal trial .Ben was charged with hitting Mia in the head by hitting a pool ball too hard and if went off the table and hit Mia. Ben also tells John that he tried to run over someone with his car. Can John tell anyone what Ben told him? If not what rules prevent him from disclosing information that a client told him in confidence? Do you think that there should be a rule that protects the information that a client tells an attorney?

Question 4.

Molly wants to sue Anaia for damages. Molly hires Desten to represent her. Molly explains that Anaia hit her car and she wants to be reimburse for the cost of repairs to the car. What procedurally should Desten do start this lawsuit? What Court would Desten file his lawsuit in? Should he file any motions?