

30-Mark-Assignment Questions

Semester: Spring 2021

Program: Bachelor of Business Administration

Southeast Business School

Southeast University

Course Title: Socio-Economic Profiles of Bangladesh

Course Code: ECO 1124; Sec-1

Full Marks: 30

Part-A

Answer the question below

(1x 13=13)

- 1) Explain why Fundamental rights in the constitution of Bangladesh are considered as supreme. The fundamental rights- freedom of movement, freedom of association, freedom of speech and press can be restricted reasonably- explain this statement with suitable practical examples in the case of each of the rights. (5+8=13)

Part-B

Answer the following two questions

(2x8.5=17)

1. Discuss how Discrimination and deprivation against Bengali people by Pakistani Government led to economic, social and cultural discriminations and exploitations that triggered the Liberation War 1971. (1x8.5=8.5)
2. Describe the features that make Bangladesh a democratic country. (1x8.5=8.5)