Issues*Issue(s) relating to Ahmad

Ahmed committed an offences by copying Alia's photo and putting it on the landing page of his website just like it was on Alia's instagram page. This may lead to confusion to the clients that Alia had impressed. This is a type of copyright infringement.

Issue(s) relating to Hiba

Hiba was guilty of taking the property owned by another person and modifying it to fit his needs. It becomes a crime since he did not get permission from the rightful owner.

Rules*Rule Relevant to Ahmad

Ahmad is guilty of copyright infringement. He had access to the copyright work as well as duplication of the image as outside the expectations.

Rule Relevant Hiba

Copyright can be transferred through an express assignment in writing. The need governs major license and as well assignment of the entirety of a copyright.

Analysis*Analysis relating to Ahmad

Basically, Ahmad is guilty of making the image public though he knew that the owner's main aim was to market his firm. Given that the image was on social media platforms he took that chance to copy the image.

Analysis relating to Hiba

In regard to the evaluation, though Hiba modifies the copied document, he is still guilty. This is because he did not ask for authority from the rightful owner of the document.

Conclusion*Conclusion relating to Ahmad

Generally, Ahmad is guilty of copyright infringement. He uses an image from Alia's Instagram site and posts it on his website. Alia uses the image for advertisement and Ahmed was aware of this but assumed it.

Conclusion relating to Hiba

Similar to the case of Ahmed, Hiba is also guilty of copyright infringement. He used an image from Ahmed's website and modifies it without authority from the owner which makes him guilty.
