

Structured Note-Taking Sheets

These sheets are helpful in providing structure and facilitating prompt note-taking while viewing a film. List key characters on the left and then use the sheets to keep track of each character's decisions or actions and the results that he/she achieves. Once finished watching the film, return to the rough notes and elaborate upon them. During class discussion these notes can refresh your memory or even help to support your position.

Character	Decisions or Actions	Results