

Assignment: Current News Article Summary

Instruction:

Current International Business News Assignment

Task:

You will research business events which are currently occurring internationally. You are responsible for summarizing an article about a recent international business news story. Note that the event MUST be current and should have occurred within the past year.

Step 1: Search a reliable news outlet's business section for a recent article. Some suggested sites include www.bbc.co.uk or www.cbc.ca.

Step 2: Read the article, highlighting information or making point form notes on important points.

Step 3: Use a presentation method such as PowerPoint, Prezi, etc. and include the following information:

- Briefly summarize the article
- Outline which countries are impacted
- Explain how it affects international trade both positively and negatively
- A link to the article
