

Name _____

Date _____

Task #4 Informative Essay Body Paragraphs (100 points)

General Introduction - An informative essay helps the reader understand the topic presented. This kind of essay supports a thesis statement with information that illustrates and explains the main point. We will be writing a thesis statement, two body paragraphs, and a re-statement of the thesis

Elements of an Essay - An essay fits a specific template that the reader expects the writing to follow:

- ☐ Introduction:
 - The thesis statement offers a roadmap for the rest of the paper.
 - Is the thesis debatable?
- ☐ Body paragraphs:
 - The topic sentence provides an overview for the paragraph.
 - Transitions between paragraphs
 - Support for the thesis statement given in the introduction
 - Cohesion between sentences
 - Concluding sentence
- ☐ Conclusion:
 - Brief summary of the paper with:
 - Re-wording of thesis statement
 - Overview of the body paragraphs
 - Call to action; last thought; prediction; warning

Topic: What are two potential places in your country that might be damaged by tourists?

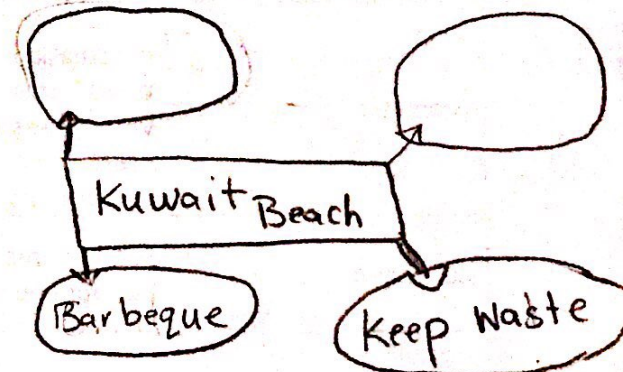

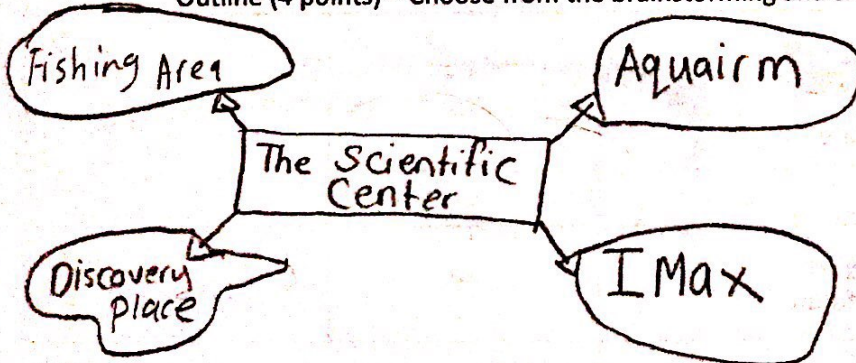

I. Pre-Writing (10 points)

Brainstorming/Freewriting (4 points) - What ideas do you have about the topic? What are some places? What kind of damage might happen to those places?

- The Scientific Center of Kuwait.

- Kuwait Beach

Outline (4 points) - Choose from the brainstorming and create a map/outline for two body paragraphs

Title (2 points) _____