

CNDV 5322: PROFESSIONALISM, ETHICS, & LAW

WEEK TWO: PERSONAL INFORMED CONSENT DOCUMENT

RUBRIC (50 points)

Content of Informed Consent	25-30 Document includes all eight elements of Informed Consent: These include: 1) Purposes, etc., of counseling services, 2) Counselor's qualifications, 3) Arrangements for services, 4) Implications of diagnosis, etc., 5) Fees and billing, 6) Confidentiality and limits, 7) Client's rights to information, 8) Client's rights to refuse services, etc.	17-24 Document includes 6-7 of 8 elements of Informed Consent: These include: 1) Purposes, etc., of counseling services, 2) Counselor's qualifications, 3) Arrangements for services, 4) Implications of diagnosis, etc., 5) Fees and billing, 6) Confidentiality and limits, 7) Client's rights to information, 8) Client's rights to refuse services, etc.	9-16 Document includes 4-5 of 8 elements of Informed Consent: These include: 1) Purposes, etc., of counseling services, 2) Counselor's qualifications, 3) Arrangements for services, 4) Implications of diagnosis, etc., 5) Fees and billing, 6) Confidentiality and limits, 7) Client's rights to information, 8) Client's rights to refuse services, etc.	0-8 Document includes 3 or fewer of 8 elements of Informed Consent: These include: 1) Purposes, etc., of counseling services, 2) Counselor's qualifications, 3) Arrangements for services, 4) Implications of diagnosis, etc., 5) Fees and billing, 6) Confidentiality and limits, 7) Client's rights to information, 8) Client's rights to refuse services, etc.
Mechanics/ Professionalism	16-20 No grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors. The document is professionally written and appears truthful.	11-15 Almost no grammatical, spelling, or punctuation errors. The document is professionally written and appears truthful.	6-10 Many grammatical, spelling, or punctuation errors. The document may or may not appear to be truthful and is not written professionally.	0-5 Numerous grammatical and punctuation errors. The document does not appear to be truthful and is not written professionally.