

Answer two of these questions below before class time on September 16.

1. Brown says that the Supreme Court's momentous 'Citizens United' states that Speech is like Capital. Howso?
2. What was the Court's controversial interpretation of corruption in the 'Citizens United' decision?
3. Brown says that a glut of information is not politically empowering, but disempowering. Why?
4. Why does Brown think education should offer humility? Why is that important?