

STUDENT NAME _____

PROCEDURE NAME SECLUSION AND RESTRAINTS

REVIEW MODULE CHAPTER _____

Description of Procedure

Seclusion and restraint are behavioural interventions that should be used as a last result in behavioural emergencies.

Indications

To make patients calmer
To make patients less aggressive or anxious.

CONSIDERATIONSNursing Interventions (pre, intra, post)

pre- the nurse should carefully assess client.

Intra- the nurse should know the best diagnosis for the patient.

Post- the nurse should follow rules to ensure that he is doing the right thing

Outcomes/Evaluation

The patient wants to harm themselves or others.
Induce further physical or psychosocial trauma.

Client Education

The client should be informed of any and all developments in his case.

Potential Complications

May cause further trauma to patient.

Nursing Interventions

Assure the public of physical and mental safety.

The practitioner should facilitate for personnel empowerment and opportunities for all.

Philosophy of the organization is created through written documents.