

Descriptive paragraph – Writing portfolio 1

Name: _____

ID: _____

Section: 4 _____

A descriptive paragraph is a paragraph that describes a person, place, or thing. A thing can be either concrete (such as when you describe the taste of chicken kabasa or your last vacation) or abstract (such as your anger or happiness). A good descriptive paragraph helps readers form a vivid image in his or her mind. Remember that in a descriptive paragraph, you show, don't tell!

To help us write a good descriptive paragraph, it is a good idea to list words or ideas about the person, place, or thing we would like to describe based on our five senses - sight, touch, smell, sound, taste.

Example:

Describe your classroom.

What do you see? What do you hear? What do you smell? What does it feel to sit in the classroom? Show, don't tell.

There is something special in my classroom today (topic sentence). The chairs are all in the back of the room, leaving a big empty space in the middle (sight). The teacher's desk is full of delicious food (sight). I can smell the warm gahwa mixing in the air with the spicy aroma of grilled kabob (smell). The walls are now filled with baby's room decoration (sight). My heart skips a beat (feeling). Only Maryam is there sitting in one corner of the room (sight). I asked, "What's this? Where's everybody?" Suddenly, my favorite childhood lullaby plays from the classroom speaker (sound) and everybody swarms in from the door saying "Congratulations on baby Ahmad, Miss!". Boy is that a nice little surprise.

Exercise:

Write a topic sentence for the following topics and use three of the five-senses description to help your readers imagine in his or her mind:

1. Topic: My Review of the Latest iPhone X/Samsung Galaxy Note 9

Topic sentence ...iPhone X is the latest phone model in the market.....

Sight:it's big with a beautiful 5.8 inch screen with smooth curves at the edges made with stainless steel giving it a shimmery appearance.

Touch: its screen is also smooth and easy to sense touch.....

Smell:.....

Sound: iPhone X speaker is also superb with the ringer volumes being adjustable with its stellar audio output. These features make it the dream phone of every person.

Spain

Spain is a beautiful country. It is full of snowcapped mountains and monuments. It has sophisticated cities with friendly people. The Cantabrian Mountains are heavily forested and you can feel the fresh air and ambience surrounding them. The vast coastline is filled with palm trees and the sheer beauty of it can make any heart flutter. Spain's cuisine is diverse and the food is so delicious. The aroma can make one go hungry! Who wouldn't want to enjoy such serenity? Spain is definitely a travel destination for aspiring tourists. Barcelona city hosts one of the biggest soccer club in the world called Barcelona fc. When they are having a match it's so fun to watch them dribbling the ball across the field. Lionel Messi uses his short stature to turn quickly and strike the ball with accuracy making him a great footballer. Sergio Ramos uses his skills to play as a center back and score many goals for his team. These players inspire others to join soccer. Spain forms a good place to interact with all these players, learn about Spanish soccer and generally enjoy their diversity.

When you write a paragraph, make sure that you:

- Use complete sentences (with clear subject and verb in every sentence) Capitalize the first letter of every sentence
- Use final punctuation at the end of every sentence (e.g. period, question or exclamation mark)
- Indent your paragraph
